

ABSTRACT FORM

TYPE THE ABSTRACT IN THE SPACE PROVIDED. DO NOT TYPE, DRAW, OR LABEL MATERIAL OUTSIDE OF THE ENCLOSED SPACE. *** SUBMISSION DEADLINE - September 1, 2010

“Long Island Sound; A Regional Perspective”

The Title of the Abstract should be in Upper and Lower Case
Bold Type: Capitalize all Words of Four or More Letters.

Leave one space between title and author information. List Authors – last name first then first or initials.

Type full names(s) of author(s) (last name, first, middle initial) and address(es) in upper and lower case letters. Do not leave space between lines identifying authors.

Underline the name of the author(s) that will be presenting the fifteen minute paper presentation.

Leave one space between the author information block and the abstract.

Leave space between paragraphs.

Neatly drawn symbols. Greek letters or other reproducible copy are acceptable.
Avoid using them in the title if possible.

Mount graphics with clear glue or rubber cement not tape. No more than three figures.

Single space

Type size should be Times Roman 12 point. ONLY

No other formatting will be accepted.

E-mail abstract to: susan.mcnamara@uconn.edu or mail to:
Long Island Sound Foundation
Research Conference
1080 Shennecossett Road
Groton, CT 06340

List of Conference Topics
Bioextraction Technologies
Invasive Species in LIS
Physical Causes of Hypoxia
Geochemistry
Mapping the Sound
Regional Ecosystems
Acidification of LIS
Management
Marine Spatial Planning
Small Bays & Inlets of LIS
Inundation
Living Marine Resources
Fisheries
Persistent Organic Pollutants

Initiating Conference Sponsors

- Long Island Sound Foundation (LISF)
- Connecticut Sea Grant
- New York Sea Grant

There will be awards presented to Graduate & Undergraduate students for oral presentations and poster presentations.